SWIMMING ADVISORY ISSUED

Sewage Overflow Cited As Cause for Caution

The S.C. Department of Health and Environmental Control has issued a swimming advisory for a section of the Reedy River in Greenville after a sewage overflow.

DHEC is advising residents to avoid swimming or wading in the Reedy River from the Vietnam War memorial in Cleveland Park to one mile downstream until noon on Friday, Sept. 7.

DHEC also recommends not allowing pets to drink the water from the same section of the Reedy River.
